BUTTE RACE MEET TO OPEN TODAY

BUTTE, July 18.—Butte's 30-day race meet, which begins tomorrow under the auspices of the Butte Jockey club, is predicted by well known race writers, will be one of the great racing meets in the northwest and the greatest ever held in the mining city. Twenty bookmakers are on the ground tonight, as compared with about 12 at previous meetings. Every stall at the racing course on the flat below Butte is occupied, as are many stables in the vicinity of the track, and there are easily more than 500 horses which will participate in the races. The best of the talent from Salt Lake, California, Juarez and the eastern tracks is here, presenting a class of racers never before seen on the Butte track.

Martin Nathanson will be the presiding judge, Richard Dwyer, the veteran starter, will officiate at the springing of the barrier, with James Healey and Charles Webber as his assistants. David O'Connor will be associate judge, Jack Dineen paddock judge and Sam McGibbon clerk of the scales.

One of the biggest stables at the track is that of Hogan & Keene, known the turf world over. It has more than 30 head of racers. H. G. Bedwell's string of fast runners is also here. There are numerous other well known track followers here with strings of more than a dozen head. The purses aggregate $100,000.

MIMIC WARFARE NOW IN PROGRESS

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I., July 18.—Fleeting glimpses of torpedo boat destroyers and submarines as they scudded about on the watch for "invaders" were the only indications of mimic warfare visible to residents of Watch Hill, Block Island, Newport, and other places within the war zone today.

The destroyers remained near Block Island the greater part of the day, but disappeared in the afternoon, while the submarines were seen off Point Judith, Brenton's Reef and elsewhere in the Narragansett Bay district. All kept well off shore so that their identity could not be ascertained.

Following the rule laid down by the war department that the use of wireless be eliminated, the ships of both attacking and defending fleets did not answer calls.

The southern shore of Massachusetts and Rhode Island residents are keeping awake tonight watching for the flashing of the searchlights and other indications that the "enemy" is near and that the expedited "battle" is on.

Although it has been generally understood here that the war was not to begin until midnight it was learned officially that the hour of starting the maneuvers was within the discretion of the commanders of the fleets. Navy department officials stipulated that the war should sometime between dawn today and noon Friday.
